

C2SIM WORKSHOP

Conducted by Dr. Mark Pullen (George Mason University) and Mr. Adam Brook (UK DSTL).

Remote use of SWORD enabled by Dr. Beatriz Garmendia-Doval (MASA).

In order to take part in this workshop, participants must have attended the two-day MSG-194 Technical Course, either online or in-person.

The latest offering of MSG-194 is 26 & 30 September 2022 at MSCOE Rome (IT) in conjunction with the NATO CA²X² Forum. (mscoe.org/event/nato-ca2x2-forum-2022)

Date

18 Oct 2022 | 0800–1700 BST
Online listen-in available at:
0300–1200 EDT | 0900-1800 CEST

Delivery

Based around hands-on activities for in-person attendees at Cranfield University, UK

Language

All presentations and discussions will be held in English

Workshop Program

- 0800 Welcome and set-up
- 0900 Refresher summary of MSG-194 RTC
- 1000 C2SIM standard internal details - ontologies, messages, information flow
- 1030 Workshop software internal details - C2SIM server, C2SIM GUI editor, C2SIM VRForces interfaces
- 1200 Lunch break
- 1300 Assembling C2SIM initialization, orders, and reports
- 1400 Individuals create tasking orders and run independently
- 1500 Group develops and runs a collective exercise
- 1600 Group discussion including critiques
- 1700 End of activities
- 1900 Group no-host dinner (optional)

