

Colonel Banks has worked in Simulations Operations and as an exercise planner, instructor, and simulations center director.

After Staff College and SAMS (School of Advanced Military Studies), Colonel Banks worked as the Chief of the U.S. Army Europe Regional Joint Combined Exercise Branch in Wiesbaden, Germany and then as the Chief of Operations for the U.S. Army Joint Multinational Simulation Center.

After War College, he served as Division Chief at the Joint Staff J7 in Virginia and, in 2023, was assigned as Head of the Modelling and Simulation Learning Technology Branch in HQ SACT. He also serves as the capability monitor for two programs: NATO Next Generation Modelling and Simulation, and Education, Training, Exercise and Evaluation Functional Services.
