

Colonel Arnel P. David

Colonel Arnel P. David is currently the Director of Task Force Maven, now the new Digital Lethality Branch, focused on implementing innovative technologies across NATO Allied Command Operations. He was formerly the Strategic Initiatives Group (SIG) Director in NATO SHAPE. Previously, he served as the DACOS G5 for the NATO Allied Rapid Reaction Corps and just prior he was the US Special Advisor to the Chief of General Staff of the British Army. Arnel is a PhD candidate at King's College London and graduated with honors from the Joint Advanced Warfighting School (JAWS). He is the founder of Fight Club International, a wargaming experimentation group focused on improving the efficacy of warfighting and decision-making.